SPRINGTIME BRINGS CHANGE

Last April, following a four hour delay at the US Border Crossing discussing the difference between product and promotional material and a quick detour back to Gananogue to drop off my promotional material to a Pastor friend, I was on my way to Coventry, Rhode Island to preach at Genesis Church Spring Rain Conference. Well worth the delay. What a glorious weekend, so refreshing, so rich. I loved every minute of the prophetic flow in worship and word. Those in attendance understood the What, Why, Who and How! I love spending time with leadership that understand End-Time anointing. It was so good to reconnect with old friends and meet new ones. No question in my mind that there are spiritually hungry people in Rhode Island and God is moving.

The Ottawa Valley was on the calendar for April preaching in churches, a home group and a Leadership Day Away. Although the weather was more like winter the spiritual climate was warm and inviting. On a Monday evening in Cobden over 150 gathered for a great celebration of worship and the Word. The altar was lined with people calling on God.

I appreciated spending a day with P.A.C.A. (Pembroke Area Clergy Association). What a fantastic time with church leaders from a variety of denominations, building bridges not walls. Refreshing!

TO CUBA WITH LOVE

Reapers is in the process of purchasing a dozen Singer sewing machines, materials, accessories and transformers. We have people ready to teach simple clothing designs on site.

This is an opportunity to bless so many families for many years to come. For $200 we can purchase the right sewing machine, accessories and carrying case. Interested?

PENTECOST

Preaching Pentecost Sunday at Bethel Tabernacle in Hamilton was a privilege. As the altar time was winding down, Pastor Michael asked me, "Do you think we are a Pentecostal Church?" Not sure I've ever been asked that question by a Pastor in thirty-four years of ministry but knowing Michael, I knew it was important to him or he would not have asked. My answer, "Absolutely!" I know Michael's heart along with most of his staff; it was evident in the service and historically all the pieces are there.

I have thought about that question over the past few months on many levels. "Do you think we are Pentecostal?" Maybe it's a question all Pentecostal Pastors should ask themselves, and others from time to time. What does a Pentecostal church look like? Or does the question even matter today? As a third generation Pentecostal preacher I believe the question is worth a look through our rear view mirror as well as the windshield.

HARVEST PRINCIPLES

"Ask the Lord of the harvest therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." Luke 10:2
You will never reach your community from your sanctuary!

BETTER TOGETHER

Over the past ten years I have traveled with a number of teams within Canada and other countries. The last two years we have joined forces with the Gilmour guys to help prep Mt. Zion Camp for summer. So once again twenty plus guys came together from Lindsay, Kingston, Bowmanville and the Ottawa Valley put on their work clothes, brought their tool belts and accomplished so much. We ate well (so many pies), had great devotions, worship and prayer times and lots of laughter. I love it when guys get together, work together, eat together, and pray together with a common goal. Not only to build structure but also to build up and bless each other. Outstanding!

TENTH YEAR CELEBRATION

Reapers celebrated our Ten Year Anniversary, Saturday, May 14th at Whitby Christian Assembly. What an awesome night of good music with Dan Macaulay and heart felt laughs with standup comedian Leland Klassen. Along with a delicious roast beef/chicken dinner catered by Divine Dining. Trish and I are extremely thankful for all those who have stood with us over the past decade.

The best days are still ahead!
