WINTER WONDERLAND

It was an absolute joy to travel across Ontario preaching and teaching at church services, leadership seminars, schools of evangelism and retreats. Someone asked me how I would describe living in Ontario, Canada during the winter. My response was cold, colder, coldest winter on record. I love the seasons even though this winter has been long and harsh. There is something about a blanket of white snow covering what was left of the faded colours of autumn. The dull grey days of winter give way to the bright sunny days of spring with new life in the ground and the trees. The snow melts into the ground and waterways as the rains come and rinse away the remaining residue of winter. I confess I don't like shoveling nor do I enjoy the cold weather or the extra costs that come with it but, I do understand the necessity of seasons and how they work together for a greater purpose. So whatever season of life you find yourself in, God is working out a greater purpose for your life. Your life is made up of seasons that will help complete your destiny in God.

THOUGHTS FROM MY JOURNAL

Integrity will protect you - Character will guide you
Anointing will empower you - Calling will humble you

HARVEST PRINCIPLES: MATTHEW 4:19

Come follow me - I will make you - Fishers of men -
Their Response: vs. 20 and 22
It's not that complicated!

PREPARE THE WAY: While I didn't hear the audible voice of God say, "This will be your theme for 2014". I do know the nudge of the Holy Spirit in my heart. My mandate for 2014 is to prepare the way for the Lord on two paths (1) the unsaved need to repent (2) the saved need reviving. Many are rapture ready, but not revival ready. We are to prepare the way for the second coming of the Lord. We are to prepare for an end time anointing that will produce an end time harvest. Like John the Baptist who prepared the way for the Lord's first coming, we the Church must prepare the way for His second coming. Before we can prepare the way for the Lord, we must be prepared by the Lord. We need to make it easy for Jesus to enter and operate in people's lives. I believe the prophet Isaiah's words spoken over John the Baptist are words for us today, "...make straight in the wilderness a highway for our God. Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of the Lord will be revealed and all mankind together will see it." Isa. 40:3-5. Sounds a lot like Acts 2:17 to me, "In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people."
